SPECIAL ED
ANNUAL REPORT

David Williams presented an in depth report on special education services and programs applied within our school building. Early Intervention, Pre- K and summer programs are effective. Professional Development, Technology Training and refreshing special education procedures are all necessary to continue the effort to appropriately serve students with more diverse needs within our building.

NCLB HEARING

The No Child Left Behind hearing was presented by David Williams. Early Intervention and the Rtl Policy are both funded by the NCLB grant. Mr. Williams thanked the Board for supporting the summer school program as well as the continuation of the Pre-K program. Early Intervention is key in the success of our students.

STUDENT
AMBASSADOR
REPORT

Cheyenne Bowers reported that the school year started with a hike with about 40 students followed by an afternoon at Minerva beach. The Elementary students were treated to an ice cream social that was well attended. Many electives were added to the schedule this year such as Jazz Band, Psychology, Sociology, a Coaching Certification class as well Robotics. An Olympic event was held on September 17th which involved many students grades 7-12 as well as many community members. It has been a busy start to the school year.

SUPT
REPORT

Supt. Gratto shared the Continuing Education Brochure that was created by Susan Repko. He is hopeful that many community members as well as staff and students will take advantage of the many offerings. The agenda for the True North Conference Day on October 7th was shared. There are many different workshops available to the staff. The Board was provided a copy of the newsletter published by the Science in Journalism class. New York State has mandated water lead testing in all school buildings. This testing will take place on Thursday September 29th at 4:00 PM. The building will be shut down as of 4:00 PM and there will be no entrance until Friday morning. The teacher's association contract is up at the end of the 2017 school year. They have informed Supt. Gratto that they are ready to begin negotiations. He asked for two BOE members to volunteer for the negotiations committee. Mr. Claus and Mrs. Armstrong will be the BOE representatives. Anita Masiello has asked permission to take a group of students to Albany to participate in the American Young Voices. The performance will take place on May 30, 2017. The program was unanimously approved.
